

Donor Recognition — April 1, 2009, to March 31, 2010

Association • National Watch and Clock Museum • Library and Research Center • School of Horology

On behalf of the Board, staff, and your fellow members, I want to thank those who have so generously contributed this past year. We were able to balance our budget this year and accomplish many of the projects we set out to do on behalf of the membership.

The following individuals, businesses, chapters, foundations, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, all helped the NAWCC to accomplish our mission of horological education and preservation. Gifts also supported the expansion of our online resources, including many new member-only features. A new recognition society—the John Harrison Endowment Society—was formed to recognize those who have contributed to our endowments over the years.

After the previous year, when the economy looked especially dire, we have seen a comeback in contributions as predictions of a prolonged severe economic downturn have lessened. Giving (excluding endowment gifts) in fiscal year 2008 was $177,377, which then dropped 38 percent to $110,646 in FY2009. FY2010, which ended in March, saw an increase in donations of 54 percent to $170,293. There were 1,009 persons who made gifts in FY2010, which means over 5 percent of the membership made donations. Adding endowment gifts and in-kind donations, our total was $237,281.
